

Report of the Communications and Consultation (C&C) Group meeting
April 8, 2020

C&C Group representatives joined the meeting of the Pension Advisory Council and reviewed and discussed the following items:

- Members received the preliminary results of the Canada Post pension plan actuarial valuation as at December 31, 2019, and some data on assumptions, such as updated life expectancy.
- Some members requested that discussions on short-term and long-term solvency relief be held at the PAC and the Communications and Consultation Group once the 2019 actuarial valuation results are final.
- The next meeting is scheduled for June 20, 2020.
